Summer Study Abroad Program to Seoul, Korea
(January 24, 2018 & June 24, 2018 – July 7, 2018)

Application Form

Eligibility

1. Current undergraduate or graduate students enrolled at the George Washington University, who will also be enrolled for Fall 2018 semester.
2. All applicants should currently or previously have taken at least one Korea-related courses at George Washington University at the time of application. You may also be eligible if you are planning to take Korea-related courses after the summer study abroad. Please write down the courses of interest and the semester you are planning to take it.
3. For graduate students, you may qualify if your thesis or capstone project focus is on Korea, so please indicate that on your essay.
4. Applicants must submit a one-page essay explaining why they would like to participate in this program and their long-term interest in Korean studies.
5. Based on the written application, you will be invited for an interview in January.
6. Students who are participating in the summer program should also be available for the day event in January 24, 2018.

Requirements

All participants are required to give a portfolio presentation and will have the chance to win a $200 award for the best presentation. Students who are planning to take classes related to Korea or students who are planning to have their thesis or capstone project focused on Korea are required to carry out their plans.

Applicant information:

Name: ____________________________ Student ID # _______________ Undergraduate/Graduate: ____________
Major(s): __________________________ Minor(s): __________________________ GPA: ____________
School: ___________________________ Year: _______________
E-mail: ____________________________ Phone Number: __________________

Korea-Related Courses:
*Please write down all the classes you have taken or planning to take.

Name of the Course 1: ____________________________
Semester: ____________________________
Name of the Course 2: ____________________________
Semester: ____________________________
Name of the Course 3: ____________________________
Semester: ____________________________

Signature: ____________________________ Date: ____________________________

Please send this application form and essay electronically to gwiks@gwu.edu by January 14, 2018.

Institute for Korean Studies, Elliott School of International Affairs, The George Washington University