

Leeward CC

Petersen Gross

Student: _____

Class: _____

Grade: _____

Rubric: ICS 251 PHP & HTML Assessment

Students will create a HTML form based off requirements provided. Students will be required to manipulate the data that has been passed to the web server and then be displayed. Total Rubric Points will be multiplied by 2.5 to make final score out of 50 points.

PHP & HTML Assessment
	Good 5 pts	Fair 3 pts	Poor 1 pts	Unacceptable 0 pts
HTML Form	Good The HTML Form is created, visually organized and passes http://validator.w3.org/ with minimal errors.	Fair The HTML Form is created using proper HTML Syntax, partially organized and passes http://validator.w3.org/ with several errors.	Poor The HTML Form is created, not organized and passes http://validator.w3.org/ with many errors.	Unacceptable Did not attempt.
PHP Code	Good PHP code is cleanly written, contains data validation, is sticky & contains ample comments.	Fair PHP code is mostly clean with elements of disorganization, contains elements of data validation & contains some comments.	Poor PHP code is unorganized, does not contain data validation or comments.	Unacceptable Did not attempt.
Results	Good Data is correctly manipulated and displayed in a clear and concise way.	Fair Data is partially manipulated and displayed.	Poor Data is not manipulated or displayed.	Unacceptable Did not attempt.
Visual Presentation	Good Website is visually appealing using CSS.	Fair Website contains some elements that are visually appealing using CSS.	Poor Website does not contain elements that are visually appealing.	Unacceptable Did not attempt.

Comments:

Build free rubrics at www.iRubric.com.

Rubric Code: NA2B65

